About Lancaster Mennonite School (LMS)

Lancaster Mennonite School offers a holistic PreK-12 education in a nurturing and diverse environment for more than 1,500 students on four campuses.

- Kraybill Campus, Grades PreK–8
- Lancaster Campus, Grades 6–12
- Locust Grove Campus, Grades PreK–8
- New Danville Campus, Grades PreK–6

Centered in Christ and committed to educational excellence in a community setting, the school exists to transform students so they can change our world through Christ-like love, peacemaking and service. LMS seeks to have a warm ecumenical spirit, valuing students from many different denominational backgrounds.

Lancaster Mennonite is a dynamic and diverse learning community of students and staff. All divisions of the school enroll a rich diversity of students from the greater Lancaster area. The seven-day high school residence hall enables the school to have a rich mix of students from urban centers beyond Lancaster as well as a significant number of inter-

BHMC Connection

- A number of children from the BHMC congregation attend LMS and some of the adults are graduates. Over the years several BHMC members have been on the faculty and staff of LMS.
